THANK YOU!

As we conclude the 2024 Cultural Awareness Corvette Weekend (CACW), we extend our heartfelt thanks for your invaluable support and participation. This year's event, themed "Celebrating the triumphs of visionary leaders who have transformed the automotive industry through Innovative Manufacturing, Cutting-Edge Designs, and Outreach Initiatives," was a resounding success. We not only celebrated the visionary leaders of the automotive industry but also cherished the bonds forged, knowledge shared, and the enduring spirit of community that drives us forward. Congratulations to our 2024 CACW Ring of Honors Inductees: Andrea Carothers, Kimball Green, Janet Henderson, Ron Jones and Ed Welburn.

CACW proudly highlights African American Corvette owners and enthusiasts while warmly welcoming all who share a passion for this iconic brand. This past weekend featured a diverse agenda including tours, seminars, networking opportunities, community service projects, social events, and entertainment, providing a rich and engaging experience for everyone involved and General Motors UNCF fundraiser. CACW distributed over 200 hundred backpacks to the youth in Warren and Logan County.

Your registration matters; CACW was able to donate a total of $16,000 between four charitable organizations: SEEK Museum, W.R.O.T. E. Foundation, Omicron Sigma Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.,

We extend our deep gratitude to our esteemed sponsors: Coughlin Chevrolet, Molson Coors, and Aetna, for their unwavering support. Heartfelt appreciation also goes to our valued partners to include the National Corvette Museum, GM Bowling Green Assembly Plant, NCM Motorsports Park, Omicron Sigma Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Sorority, Inc., Holiday Inn University Host Hotel and Convention Center & the 12 other local hotels in our sponsored block. Special thanks to our generous contributors such as Michael and Penny Lockhart, Millicent Moye, NCM Insurance, and the Bowling Green Convention Bureau.

A super special thanks goes to our dedicated CACW Officers, Ambassador, Advisors, and Volunteers whose tireless efforts ensured the continued success of this event.

Lastly, CACW extends a heartfelt THANK YOU to all vendors, partners, WNKY Morning Show, Tony Rose/WDNS, WBVR, WBKO Midday Live, Bowling Green City Leaders, General Motors Leadership from Bowling Green and Detroit...thanks for the ZR1 and E-Ray!, and last but not least, THANK YOU to the 2024 CACW Participants from the US and Canada. Each of you played an integral role in the ongoing success of CACW.
